PLAINTIFFS COUNSEL S MOTION FOR ADMISSION PRO HAC VICE

Counsel s Motion

Counsel for Plaintiffs moves that this court admit him to practice before this court pro hac vice.

The Basis

1. Counsel is an active member in good Standing with the State Bar of Texas.
2. Counsel is licensed by the Supreme Court of Texas, and has been admitted to practice before the Northern and Southern Districts of Texas, the United States Tax Court and the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.
3. Through the materials available on the court s web site, Counsel is familiarizing himself with the Local Rules of the Court, and with the Final Report of the Committee on Civility of the Seventh Federal Judicial Circuit, among the other documents and publications available there.

4. As a practical matter, for Plaintiffs' claims to be handled by counsel, as the court might predict, there are not many who are interested in such a hot potato topic as this one is. Upon due diligence and thoroughness, Counsel has even found it difficult to secure local counsel for this particular matter.

Prayer for Relief

For these reasons, Counsel respectfully requests that this court admit him pro hac vice.

Respectfully submitted,

Harmon L. Taylor
