Dark Questions surrounding Texas Executions under Bush

In 1998, Bush ignored a confession by a prison inmate that would have exonerated two men convicted of rape and murder. Just recently, DNA evidence proved that the two men were innocent, and the confessor was indeed the culprit. (Salon, 10/13/2000:

Texas Rangers

Bush lent his name; billionaire Richard Rainwater and the Texas taxpayers made him rich. "But Bush and his partners weren't satisfied lining their pockets with average Texans' hard-earned cash. They wanted land around the stadium to further boost its value. To that end, they orchestrated a land grab that shortchanged local landowners by several million dollars."

"McNeil's deposition, taken on Oct. 17, is the fourth time that Bush's sworn statement regarding the SCI investigation has been contradicted. It also calls into question Bush's statement that he has 'no personal knowledge of relevant facts of the investigation' or 'any dispute arising from this investigation.'"

CIA director George Bush Sr. and the Letelier assassination

“More recently, national security agencies have frustrated timely release of information, seemingly with an eye toward the election and possible restoration of the Bush dynasty. The Cold War history now in the balance includes evidence implicating the elder George Bush – at least for negligence and possibly worse – in the double homicide of Chilean dissident Orlando Letelier and American co-worker Ronni Moffitt in a 1976 car-bombing in Washington, D.C.” A Bush II presidency might also mean that we will never know the whole truth about Iran-Contra, Iraqgate, the October Surprise and Bush Sr.’s relationship with Noriega (<http://www.consortiumnews.com/110500a.html>)

An Unholy Alliance –

The Bush Family and Reverend Moon

“One well-placed former leader of Moon’s Unification Church told me that the total earmarked for former President Bush was $10 million. The father of the Republican nominee has declined to say how much Moon’s organization actually paid him for speeches and other services in Asia, the United States and South America.” (Parry, The Consortium, 10/11/2000, <http://www.consortiumnews.com/101100a.html>)

“In September 1995, Bush and his wife, Barbara, gave six speeches in Asia for the Women’s Federation for World Peace, a group led by Moon’s wife, Hak Ja Han Moon. In one speech on Sept. 14 to 50,000 Moon supporters in Tokyo, Bush insisted that ‘what really counts is faith, family and friends.’ Mrs. Moon followed the ex-president to the podium and announced that ‘it has to be Reverend Moon to save the United States, which is in decline because of the destruction of the family and moral decay.’” [Washington Post, Sept. 15, 1995]

(<http://www.consortiumnews.com/archive/moon1.html>)

George Bush Sr./Dick Cheney/James Baker and Iraqgate

Dick Cheney was the Defense Secretary during President Bush’s covert Iraqgate plan that armed and funded Hussein’s military right up to the Kuwaiti invasion, and left the American taxpayers holding $2 Billion in defaulted Iraqi debt. “And it emphasized the striking fact -- buried deep in a 1991 Washington Press piece -- that Secretary of State James Baker, after meeting with Iraqi Foreign Minister Tariq Aziz in October 1989, intervened personally to support U.S. government loan guarantees to Iraq.”

See Mark Zepezauer’s “The CIA’s Greatest Hits” (Odonian, 1994) about how the US Ambassador to Iraq, April Glaspie, told Hussein that the US “took no position” on Iraq’s dispute with Kuwait. Five days later, the Iraqis invaded Kuwait.

Prescott Bush Sr., Nazi Financier

George Sr.’s father ran one of the most extensive front networks to finance Nazi industrialists, until these companies’ assets were seized in 1942, under the Trading with the Enemy act. At the time, we had declared war, and our troops were on the way to North Africa.
