DID A LAWSUIT STOP MCVEIGH'S EXECUTION?

Devvvy Kidd
May 23, 2001

Before I get started on the meat of this piece, I want to say something about a common question I get from people: "Devvvy, you know the government is covering up on this bombing, we'll never know the truth, why bother?" Why bother? How about this for starters:

That is why I bother. 168 Americans were slaughtered without even the chance to defend themselves. Not DEA, or SSA or any other government agency someone may not like. 168 human beings. Men, women, children, babies. Slaughtered. These were people's moms, dads, brothers, sisters, husbands, wives, grand babies, children, brothers, sisters, cousins, sons and daughters. Innocents.

There is too much scientific evidence and eyewitness accounts that point to more than McVeigh, Nichols or Fortier as the masterminds behind this heinous act of murder. Why do I bother? For God's sake, how can anyone sit back and swallow the bald-faced lies about this bombing and do nothing about it simply because the odds are stacked against us? We must do everything we can to expose the truth, stacked deck or not.
